LIFE CARE FUNDING GROUP AND AGING WITH GRACE ANNOUNCE STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIP

Organizations launch national education campaign about funding solutions and senior support services for millions of families

(June 30, 2009) Lewiston, ME— Life Care Funding Group and Aging with Grace announced today that they have launched a national education campaign and will work together to bring their to millions of families across the United States. Life Care Funding Group is a leading provider of “Funding Solutions for Senior Living” and currently works with more than 60 providers of senior housing and long term care across 1,500 facilities throughout the U.S. Aging with Grace is a leading senior housing information and support service currently being offered to over 13 million families through a wide variety of sources including benefit consultants, employer groups, and health and welfare funds as a work place benefit.

By working together, both organizations will educate families across the United States about funding and support services to ease the transition into senior housing and long term care. Aging with Grace will make the Life Care Funding benefit available to its extensive network of exclusive subscribers. Life Care Funding Group will introduce the Aging with Grace Program to its national network of senior living providers, professional resources and the thousands of people that visit the company’s website every month.

“We are very pleased to be working with the amazing team running Aging with Grace”, said Chris Orestis, Life Care Funding Group’s founder and president, “we feel it is critical in this day and age to provide families and the senior living industry with as many options as possible to help people make a successful transition into the “senior living” stage of life.”

“Aging with Grace provides informational support through our website and one-on-one with our Eldercare Advisors. By adding funding solutions to our program, we will be able to help families with one of the biggest problems we see every day—affording the costs of senior housing and care,” explained Patricia Grace, the co-founder and CEO of Aging with Grace.

Both organizations have linked websites and Facebook pages, and are reaching out to their respective client bases to generate more awareness about these options. Chris Orestis has also joined the “Panel of Experts” for Aging with Grace and will be authoring regular Blog entries about financial matters impacting seniors, and will be available to consumers through their “Ask an Expert” program.
